

2014 United States Mint Annual Uncirculated Dollar Coin Set Available Sept. 8

September 2, 2014

WASHINGTON — Sales will open for the 2014 United States Mint Annual Uncirculated Dollar Coin Set (product code XA6) Sept. 8 at noon Eastern Daylight Time (EDT).

Orders will be accepted at <http://www.usmint.gov/catalog> and at 1-800-USA-MINT (872-6468), while hearing- and speech-impaired customers with TTY equipment may order at 1-888-321-MINT. A fee of $4.95 will be added to all domestic orders for shipping and handling.

This set is again priced at $44.95 and contains the following six uncirculated $1 coins in production this year:

- Four Presidential $1 Coins struck at the United States Mint at Philadelphia. The obverses (heads sides) have the images of Warren G. Harding, Calvin Coolidge, Herbert Hoover, and Franklin D. Roosevelt, while their common reverses (tails sides) all have a striking rendition of the Statue of Liberty.
- One Native American $1 Coin struck at the United States Mint at Denver. The obverse features the image of Sacagawea, and the reverse depicts a Native American man offering a pipe while his wife offers provisions of fish, corn, roots, and gourds. In the background is a stylized image of the face of William Clark's compass highlighting "NW," the area in which the expedition occurred.
- One American Eagle Silver Coin struck at the United States Mint at West Point. The obverse depicts Adolph Weinman's image of Walking Liberty, and the reverse depicts the heraldic eagle with shield, an olive branch in the right talon, and arrows in the left.

About the United States Mint

The United States Mint was created by Congress in 1792 and became part of the Department of the Treasury in 1873. It is the Nation's sole manufacturer of legal tender coinage and is responsible for producing circulating coinage for the Nation to conduct its trade and commerce. The United States Mint also produces numismatic products, including proof, uncirculated, and commemorative coins; Congressional Gold Medals; and silver and gold bullion coins. The United States Mint's numismatic programs are self-sustaining and operate at no cost to the taxpayer.

Note: To ensure that all members of the public have fair and equal access to United States Mint products, orders placed prior to the official on-sale date and time of Sept. 8, 2014, at noon EDT, shall not be deemed accepted by the United States Mint and will not be honored.
